

Please do not consider allowing broadcast media and print media to combine. It is not reasonable for one person, one company or one organization to own more than one media source in any one area. Much of these information sources are already filtering the information that the public receives. More widespread ownership will limit the public right to all or complete information. Please do not permit this cross ownership.